Dear Mr Sheldon,

The University of Bristol is delighted to confirm your formal offer to study for the degree of Data Science (MSc) in the Faculty of Engineering subject to meeting the conditions below.

To accept this offer please go to our offer response page.

If you are declining this offer we would appreciate it if you would let us know your reasons for doing so on our offer response page.

You will need to let us know your decision about our offer before 30/06/2020.

It is important for you to print and save this information for your records.

Please read the details of the offer below carefully, including the information about accommodation and regulations of the programme.

The University tuition fee covers teaching, supervision, examining and normal overheads, such as access to the library and other University facilities. Costs associated with your specific research, such as fieldwork, travel, admission/archive fees and conference attendance are not covered by the tuition fee. However you may be able to access funding to help with these costs, depending on the funding sources available to you. A bench fee may be charged to cover the use of specialist equipment; where applicable, this will be stated separately in your offer of admission.

You should note that if you request and are permitted to defer your offer, the tuition fee quoted in your original offer letter will not apply to your new start date. Tuition fees are subject to annual review and are liable to rise each year. We may not have confirmation of the fees for your new start date, but please budget for up to a five percent increase per year. You are advised to also refamiliarise yourself with programme content and available course options before re-accepting any new offer for a new start date, as our available programmes and programme content does change.

This offer is an offer of admission only. There is no University of Bristol funding associated with this offer.

- Mental health difficulties
- Mobility impairments
- Unseen disabilities like Epilepsy / HIV / AIDS / Chronic Fatigue

we advise you to contact the University's Disability Services for advice about study support at the earliest opportunity before you start your studies.

You have the right to withdraw from this agreement up to 14 days after your acceptance. For details, please see <http://www.bristol.ac.uk/secretary/student-rules-regs/>.

Registration

If the University has not seen original versions of your main academic qualifications, you will be required to show them at registration, before your student card will be issued. International students are normally required to provide certificates confirming their English language competence plus official translations of any certificates/transcripts not written in English.

If you have accepted the offer of a place for September entry the registration material will normally be sent in August (and will also be available at Information for new students). If you are starting your studies at any other point in the academic year registration material is normally sent out one month before the start of your studies.

The University will accept applications for accommodation during the spring of 2020. For further details please see the Accommodation for new postgraduates.

Information for International Applicants

Under the UK Visas and Immigration regulations students from certain countries will need a student visa to enter the UK, and both the student and the University will need to comply with specific immigration rules. Please visit the following website to find out if you need a visa and for further information about the visa application process: <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/uk-visas-and-immigration>.

International students who have indicated in their application that they require a visa will be issued with the required Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) for their visa application after they have accepted this offer and met all the conditions listed above, including paying a compulsory deposit (where applicable). CAS's are typically generated no earlier than 90 days before the start of your course.

International students can find pre-arrival and other useful information on our International Student Support website: <http://www.bristol.ac.uk/international/>. If you would like further information about the language programmes at the University of Bristol you can find details at <http://www.bris.ac.uk/languagecentre/efl/summer/pre-sessional.html>.

Programme Deposit

You are required to pay a compulsory deposit of at least £ 1500 but may pay up to the full cost of the tuition fee for the first year.

The deadline for the payment of the deposit is the same as your offer response deadline, which is 30/06/2020.

You must pay your deposit by the deadline date, however, we recommend you pay your deposit as soon as possible. The payment of a deposit is likely to ease your application for a visa, if you require one, and will also help to avoid delays in the production of your Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) for use in your visa application. The appropriate support for your visa application will not be issued by the University until this deposit has been paid.

Students whose fees are being paid by an external organisation or sponsor (for example, a government department, company or charity) are not required to pay a deposit. The organisation paying your fees will be invoiced and requested to pay the full fee once you have registered on the programme of study.

You can pay this deposit online at <http://bris.ac.uk/online-payments/deposits> using a credit or debit card. Alternatively you can pay through our PaytoStudy account at <http://www.bristol.ac.uk/paytostudy>. PaytoStudy is an international payment solution which offers competitive exchange rates. Where PaytoStudy has a local bank account, all wire fee charges will be eliminated and you will be able to pay in your local currency to a local bank account.

The deposit is non-transferable and non-refundable except under the circumstances outlined in the Deposits Refund Policy which is available at <http://www.bristol.ac.uk/international/fees-finance/refunds/>. You may pay your deposit in advance of meeting the conditions of your offer. If you subsequently fail to meet the conditions attached to your offer and are therefore unsuccessful on academic grounds then a refund will be made to you. To make the payment you will need your student number which is 2039496.

Please leave 48 hours from the date of this letter before paying your deposit.

Please make sure your contact details are kept up to date, especially your email address, as we will use this to send you important information about your offer to study at Bristol. You can update your contact details by logging into your application and selecting 'Update Profile'.

We hope you are able to accept this offer and look forward to welcoming you as a student at Bristol.

Yours sincerely,
